AWFUL SHIPWRECK—260 COOLIES DROWNED OR EATEN BY TIGERS.—The English papers give the particulars of the loss of the American built ship Eagle Speed while on her way with four hundred and ninety-seven coolies from Port Canning to Demarara. The wreck took place near Halliday's Island, August 22, and the fatal results are thus described:

Three of the Eagle Speed's boats were launched, manned by the crew. Including the coolies, who threw themselves into the water on hencoons, the boat saved one hundred and sixty-nine, and all the Europeans. Captain Hopkins' boat made five trips, but the others were soon smashed; one of them had at half-past twelve brought off the Captain, whom his own crew refused to help.

The steamer Lady Elgin, which was near, left for Port Canning; no hint was given to three hundred miserable wretches who were sinking to launch the ship's cutter, which had not been used, though the one European left and five negroes did so, and with thirty coolies were afterwards found by the steamer. The ship continued to float all that night, and did not sink till seven on Wednesday morning, justifying the opinion of Captain Hopkins, "Considering the rate at which the ship was sinking, I was sanguine that we would have succeeded in getting the greater portion of the coolies out."

Two steamers were at once sent round from Calcutta, and the Lady Elgin returned from Port Canning. They found three coolie lads on the mast of the wreck, and saved about sixty more who had floated to Halliday's and Butcher Island, where the tigers are said to have destroyed some. The coolies assert that the last European attempted to fire the ship. Of the four hundred and ninety-seven coolies, two hundred and sixty seem to have perished on that terrible Wednesday morning, or afterwards in the jungle.

BUSINESS IN NEW ORLEANS.—The New Orleans correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser says:

Business is becoming quite brisk, and the city looks very much as it did in the month of August. The receipts of cotton are large, and every steamer that comes down the river brings a full cargo of western produce. Several cargoes of cattle have lately arrived from Texas, and one or two cargoes have been brought down the Mississippi. There have been three arrivals of foreign ships, bringing wines and brandies, and foreign dry and fancy goods. The opinions of mercantile men differ materially as to our future prospects, some thinking the present season of prosperity will last but a short time, and then be followed by a monetary and commercial crisis; others believing we have entered upon a career of unparalleled financial success. The city is certainly looking up at the present moment, and it is to be hoped we may have no worse times in the future. Speaking of business, I am reminded of the scarcity of lumber and its uncommonly high price. A large number of buildings are wanted immediately—both stores and private dwellings—but the high price of lumber, and all kinds of building materials, as well as the want of skilled labor, makes it almost impossible to build at this time.

The National Intelligencer says: Alfred Lee, a well-known and respectable colored man, long engaged in this city as a feed dealer, and whose fortune is considerable, is said to have purchased the elegant mansion on H street, lately occupied by the British Minister.
